Logicor Appoints Head of Development in Germany

2nd June 2025 – Frankfurt – Logicor, a leading owner, manager and developer of European logistics real estate has today announced the appointment of Susann Birkert- Müller as Head of Development, in Germany.

With an extensive development pipeline across Germany, Susann Birkert-Müller will take on responsibility for delivering new-build projects totalling 170,000 sqm currently under development.

Over the next six years, Logicor plans to develop its land and project portfolio in high-demand locations – driven by e-commerce and shifting consumer behavior.

Janica Gerecke, Logicor Country Manager, Germany, said:

“Across Germany, we are focusing on developing best-in-class real estate in key markets where we know there is high demand for modern, well located and sustainable real estate – and importantly – where we know our customers want to be.

“Susann will strengthen our team with her wealth of experience, perspective and expertise, and will play an important part in further expanding our position in the market.”

With over 17 years of experience in the logistics real estate industry, Birkert-Müller brings a comprehensive understanding of the market as well as in-depth development and transactional knowledge.

Susann Birkert-Müller, Logicor Head of Development, Germany, said:

"The ambition and focus of the Logicor team in Germany, led by Janica, is very clear and why I am excited to join the team at this important point. We want to create modern, sustainable real estate where there is demand and opportunity.

“Logistics real estate has developed into one of the most exciting and dynamic asset classes – both nationally and internationally – and I am looking forward to working with a great team to bring to life our development strategy in Germany.”

Susann joins from Panattoni where she was responsible for the development of Panattoni Parks, and previous to this, she worked at Deka as Head of Logistics Acquisitions & Sales.
